	& Stathern			Right to Bid legislation, specifically the Localism Act, Part 5, Chapter 3, s.88(2). This states that a building or other land is an Asset of Community Value if “there is a time in the recent past when an actual use of the building or other land that was not an ancillary use furthered the social wellbeing or interests of the local community.” It was felt that there was insufficient evidence to support this definition and use of the property in the “recent past”.
The Windmill Inn	4 Main Street, Redmile, NG13 0GA Barkestone, Plungar and Redmile	14/03/17	Accepted 21/04/17 Appeal decision outcome:	Following a review by the Head of Communities and Neighbourhoods it was concluded that this nomination met the requirements of being an Asset of Community Value, in accordance with the Localism Act 2011 and the Assets of Community Value (England) Regulations 2012. The decision to list the Windmill Public House as	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A

			Retained as an Asset of Community Value on amended plan 17/08/17 Partial Listing	an Asset of Community Value was upheld by the Community and Social Affairs Committee, however, they accepted that site plan would need to be amended as it contained land that was not part of the ACV listing. It is now part-listed and qualifies as an exemption. The owners have notified that they intend to sell.
The Boat Inn	57 Burton Street, Melton Mowbray LE13 1AF	15/03/17	Rejected 09/05/17	Following a review by the Head of Communities and Neighbourhoods it was felt that the Boat Inn did not fully meet the definition criteria set out in the Community Right to Bid legislation, specifically the Localism Act Part 5, chapters 2 and 3. The Community Right to Bid states that a building or other land is an asset of community value if its main use has recently been, or is presently used, to further the social wellbeing or social interests of the local community and could do so in the future. The Localism Act states that 'social interest' include cultural, recreational and sporting interest. It was felt there was insufficient evidence to support this definition.

The Red Lion Public House and Car Park	Red Lion Street Stathern LE14 4HS Stathern	23/01/17	Public House - Accepted 20/03/17 Car park – rejected 20/03/17	Following a review by the Head of Communities and Neighbourhoods it was concluded that the Red Lion Public House met the requirements of being an Asset of Community Value, in accordance with the Localism Act 2011 and the Assets of Community Value (England) Regulations 2012. In regards to the car park, it was concluded that this did not meet the requirements of being an Asset of Community Value, in accordance with the Localism Act 2011 and the Assets of Community Value (England) Regulations 2012, and in particular Part 5, Chapter 3, Section 88(2)(a)&(b) of the Localism Act which	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A

Frisby Lakes	The Old Quarry, Hoby Road, Asfordby, Melton Mowbray, Leicestershire, LE14 3TL. Frisby on the Wreake	28/9/2013	Accepted 7/10/2013 Appeal decision outcome: Rejected 22/4/14	The evidence submitted by the owner, for the purposes of an appeal, was assessed against two exemptions: Land included a business which was a going concern. The first floor of the old sailing club building on the site accommodated Celtic Tackle, a fishing tackle retailer. The shop was well stocked and served personal and on-line customers. The business was a going concern. This building was situated within the area of land which was proposed to be listed. Part-listed land – sale of a	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A

				site only part of which has been listed. The evidence submitted by the owner indicated that only part of the whole site was proposed to be listed. The eastern portion of the lakes was totally excluded from the proposed listed land. Other, smaller areas of land, along with western and southern boundaries of the larger, whole site were also excluded from the proposed listed land. The larger, whole site was a coherent parcel of land in single ownership. The area which was proposed to be listed did not include all of this land.
