Somerby			The building nominated failed to meet the definition of asset of community value as set out in Sections 88 of the Localism Act 2011 and the Asset of Community Value (England) Regulations. The Community Right to Bid states that a building or other land is an asset of community value if its main use has recently been, or is presently used, to further the social wellbeing or social interests of the local community and could do so in the future. The Committee felt there was insufficient evidence to support this definition.
